which I enclose a money order for $.50 payable to the VIRGINIA
TE LIBRARY. Stamps may not be accepted.

Virginia Wills and Administrations, 1632-1800, by Clayton Torrence.
P. 444. Listing Watkins wills, inventories and administrations.
1 negative photostat .50

Because of the very large list of Watkinswills in many Virginia counties we have listed the above reference, which includes all the Watkins wills and administrations through 1799. However, the will you seek would possibly have been probated after 1800. Thus to locate the will an extended search of the indexes of the possible counties would be necessary. There is no general index to wills later than those included in Torrence's index.

Our service is limited to supplying copies of records in our collections to which specific references must be furnished.

Our staff is so small that we are unable to undertake any genealogical research whatsoever, so for your information we are suggesting the names of the following individuals who may be able to assist you:

Miss Ann W. Reddy, 500 W. Franklin Street, Richmond, Virginia
Mrs. W. H. Knowles, 4313 N. Ashlawn Drive, Richmond, Virginia

This work is to be done by the Virginia State Library under the following itions to which I agree:

(1) The Library does not sell the photocopies but merely performs the service

WILLS

Mrs. Joseph Buckley
1337 Ashland Ave.,
Santa Monica, Calif.

Dear Mrs. Buckley:

As membership chairman for Fort Harrison Chapter of D.A.R , I am interested in completing papers for some decendants of the Vigo county, Indiana, Soules family. Yesterday I called on Mrs. Mary Rusk who is of this family. She is 85, quite alert and still interested in her family history. She told me that your mother had visited in her home and that they had gone with Mr. A. Markle to the court house here and colledted records-that in addition to this your mother had done much more work. She gave me letters which she had received from a Mrs.Kate Stevens, Ft. Scott, Kansas, who was also working on this line of the Soules family. It seems that Mrs. Stevens had contacts with your mother.

Now, I am wondering if you have your mothers data, and if so would it be available to us? Having worked at genealogy as a hobby for many years, I know what a chore it would be to go through another's notes, unless, vitally interested yourself. If you have notes of your mother's and do not wish to go to the trouble of going through them but would send them to Mrs. Rusk, registered mail, she will be glad to safe gaurd them for a few days, while they are searched and then return them to you, plus the mailing charges. Or if we may have access to them and there is some other way to do it-that will be fine.

Also do you know how I may contact some member of Mrs. Stevens family?

I'm sure you are wondering why I'm doing all this work. Gertrude Soules and Esther Whitlock her sister are good friends of mine. I started this for them and now find Mrs. Rusk and her daughter interested. Too I'm interested in proving that their Revolutionary ancestor died in Vigo county, Indiana. If we can locate the grave it will be marked by the government through D.A.R. Yes its work but so much fun.

If you can help in any way it will be appreciated so much.

Sincerely yours,

Rula E. Barbee

Mrs. Mary Soules Pugh
Terra Haute, Ind.
My dear Mrs. Pugh:

Since I am a stranger to you I feel that I should explain who I am and my purpose in taking the liberty of addressing you.

I am the daughter of Mary, daughter of Henry Soules. My name is Mrs. Kate Stevens and my home is Oklahoma. I have a married daughter living here and I often visit her.

I was in Syracuse last fall while here and happened to be in the library there in the American History department. I noticed two volumes of the Soule family history. This summer while here I made it a point to look up many interesting bits of history here in the Cornell Library and also to again visit the Syracuse library.

I desire to obtain these books if I can connect up the Terra Haute branch to my satisfaction. To do this I must know more about them than I do. This is why I am writing you. Can you give me the following information?-The date of birth and place of birth of my great brandfather and also his father8s name etc.,

Alma Green who is my mother's cousin and yours also told me his name was William. That he lived in Schoharie Co., and also Onondaga Co. Her mother was born in Schoharie Co., in 1801. That William had a sister named Eleanor and also one named Free-love.

Now I've found in this book an Eleanor Soules who married Origen Brigham in Schoharie Co. She was born in 1764 in Pembroke now Marlboro, Mass. Her father was Capt. Moses Soules (they spell the name in several ways) but all are the decendants of Geo. Soule who came in the Mayflower.

Moses had married Eleanor Williams and had Chas. Williams born 1762. Eleanor 1764-Bildad 1766-Moses 1769 but Chas. Williams children are given and they are not the children of my great grandfather.

Mrs. Pugh I shall be so very much pleased to get the information for which I've asked or any other that you have of this man or his family.

Should you care to get the direct line, if I am successful in prefectiong it, I shall be pleased to send it to you.

Hoping to hear from you at once and thanking you I am very truly yours.

Mrs. Kate Stevens.

Bildad born 1766 was probably William who died in Vigo county, Indiana in 1820. He married I believe Jemima Butler.

Eleanor born 1764 was probably the Eleanor who married Peter Garber and was granted the first divorce in Vigo county, Ind.

Dear Miss Pugh:

I wrote you sometime ago regarding the Soules in Terra Haute and that I have had difficulty in establishing the name of our grandfather.

If some one interested in this matter would look over the records in Co., clerk's or Register of deeds office it might establish it, in Terra Haute.

The record as I glean it from these histories I have is as follows:

Geo. Soule came in the Mayflower as tutor for Gov. Winslow's children-born either about 1590 or 1600; the dates not certain married Mary Becket. Died 1679. She died in 1677.

John, son of Geo & Mary Becket Soule born 1623 or 1631 (dates uncertain) married Rebecca Simmons, dau. of Moses Simmons. He died in 1707/ Born at Plymouth, Mass.

James, son of John & Rebecca Simmons Soule born in Duxbury, Mass., in 1659. Died in Middleboro, Mass. Aug. 27, 1744, married Lydia Thompson of Middleboro who died Mar. 14, 1741.

Isaac, son of James and Lydia Thompson Soule born June 16, 1699. No wife given supposed to be Isaac of Middleton Mass.

Capt. Moses Soule, son of Isaac of Middleton baptized at Pembroke Mass. Apr. 2, 1738, married Eleanor Williams at Marshfield, Mass. May 7, 1761.

Bildad, second son of Moses & Eleanor Williams Soule born Sept. 17, 1766. Jemima Butler wife of Wm or Bildad born Jan. 14, 1773 died Oct. 3, 1833.

The record down to Jemima Butler copied from the history of the Soule, Sowl, Soule's family history by Rev. G.T. Ridlon. The last item from Alma Greene's father's old bible.

The military record of the three sons of Capt. Moses Soules and also Moses' record I found in the Mass. Directory of Sailors & Soldiers in the Rev. It is the same as is given in these books. Chas. Williams the oldest son was in the war until 1781. I saw the cemetery where he is buried at Oneonta., N.Y. His children's names are in this book, but when it comes to Bildad it says: "See children forward" but none given. Chas. Williams for a while was a fifer. Bildad'd records shows he was in off and on for about a year. He was a drummer. Enlisted in 1778. Only 12 yrs. old. Moses enlisted for 4 days only. He was 9 yrs. old. So you see there was no son Wm/ who could have been a drummer boy in the Rev. I drove over to Schoharie and found Origen Brigham's grave. He is buried in the cemetery at the fort. It is well kept and he must have been an important personage in Schoharie as people still know of him. I failed to find Eleanor's grave. She had no children.

These Soule's were Quakers and this story about Moses disowning our grandmother must be a mistake. He probably married Jemima who was not a Quaker and was disowned by the Quaker church since that was a ruling in the church-I glean from reading th e history.

These books go back to 9th century. Dr. Ridlon was perfectly astonished it appears to learn of this Terra Haute, branch. He is 85 yrs. old but he requested me to collect all I could and send to him as he might publish a new edition. I am trying to complete my own record for these books. If I'm successful in collectin

My dear Miss Barbee:

An examination of the Revolutionary War service rolls of this state and of the printed rolls of Connecticut which we have on file, has revealed that several persons with the name William Soule served in the Revolutionary War. However, since none of the rolls contain personal information, we are unable to identify any of them with the William Soules who settled in Vigo County, Indiana in 1816.

We have made a cursory examination of our two-volume Soule genealogy but regret that we were unable to find any William Soule listed who resided in Indiana. Since the only index in the volumes is to persons having surnames other than Soule, perhaps we could locate the William Soule in whom you are interested if you would send us the maiden name of his wife.

REGISTRAR GENERAL, N.S.D.A.R.

WASHINGTON 6, D.C.

January 6, 1959.

Mrs. Dorothy J. Clark,

Terre Haute, Indiana.

Dear Mrs. Clark:

We are sorry to report that the data recently sent to assist with the verification of the application papers of Miss Gertrude Frances Soules, Mrs. Esther Soules Whitlock, and Mrs. Haziel Woollen Modisett on the record of Moses Soule do not furnish sufficient proof to establish the parentage of William Soules of Vigo County, Indiana, as the son of Moses Soule and Eleanor Williams who was baptized as Bildad at Pembroke, Massachusetts, on September 17, 1766.

It is stated that the dates of birth and death of Jemima Butler are from Alma Greene's father's old Bible. It would be most helpful to secure the records from this old Bible as these records might give the birth and death of William (Bildad) Soules. We find no proof that Elenor Soules, daughter of William Soules and wife Jemima married (1) Peter Garber and (2) William Story.

Divorced 1818

The will of William Souls, dated September 7, 1820, names his daughter as Elenor Souls at that time. Among the marriages of Vigo County, Indiana, the marriage of Oliver A. Story and Elinor Souls is recorded on April 5, 1821. Oliver A. Story is also named with Jemima Souls and other heirs when land is sold on September 30, 1825.

The marriage of Robert McCoy and Elenor Garber is recorded on August 24, 1820, the date given in data as the marriage of Eleanor Souls, daughter of William and Jemima Souls, who married (1) Peter Garber and (2) August, 1820, William Story.

You can readily see that the will, sale of property and marriage records give no proof that Elenor, daughter of William and Jemima Souls, married either Peter Garber or William Story.

WILLS

THE UNIVERSITY OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

Since there is difficulty in proving this lineage, we suggest that the applicants file substitute sets of papers on another line. Possibly with more research they may be able to definitely prove the parentage of William Soules and this line could then be used in preparing supplemental papers.

Substitute papers should be prepared in duplicate, signed by the chapter officers, endorsed by two members of the chapter to whom the applicants are personally known, and attested before a notary. They should then be forwarded to this office with a request for the transfer of fees and dues.

Other lines of ours back there are Scott, Liston, Patton, and Stephens.

I am so sorry I am unable to help you in your search for the Soule family. Or is it Soules? My ~~Soule~~ Soule without the "s". I hope you may find proof of the Massachusetts and Indiana Soules.

Just in passing, we had a minister here for 8 years of the Hillside Christian Church whose name was J. Barbee Robertson. He was from Kentucky and they now live in California. This name was a family name.

Miss Lucy E. Pugh
Terra Haute, Ind.
Dear Mr. Pugh:

I was very much pleased to receive your letter and I hope by co-operation we may eventually establish our identity with the Soule family and the line to Geo. Soule, the Pilgrim.

The name is Soule but in Nova Scotia and New Yourk the "S" in many instances has been added, however they can all be traced back to Georg Soule except the Franch line.

Tradition in our family as handed down to me, at any rate is that our ancestor came in the Mayflower. That our grandfather or rather great grandfather was fobn in Mass., his father a merchant. That our g-grandfather married either a servant in the family or a country girl named Jemima and therby was disowned. Now it seems to me my mother said her name was Butler. I enquired of Alma Green and in substance she gave me the same story.

Alma said her mother was born in Schoharie Co., in 1801 and showed me a book stating this. She said also that our g-grand father lived in Onondaga Co., Syracuse is the Co., seat, of this county and one branch of the family is among the leading citizens of that city; not our branch, but they go back to Geo.

Alma gave me the names of her mother's family in this order: Moses, Wm. Cornelius, Eleanor, Henry, Chas., Mary and Eliza; all born she in N.Y.

The first census of 1790 doesn't show that Wm. Soule is the head of a family. The 1810 census might but I've been unable to find the 1810 directory. If you can find it at the library in Terra Haute I wish you would report to me. Alma said they left N.Y. in 1816. So he must have married about 1793.

Is this the same story that has been told you? I have made up my mind that our line is this, Geo-John-Moses-Isaac-Capt. Moses-Wm. That takes us to our Wm, but I do find this. Capt. Moses Soule was born at Pembroke, Mass., in 1738. He had a son Chas. Williams born 1762 at Pembroke-Eleanor born 1764-Bildad born 1764-Moses 1766, all baptized at the 1st Church of Christ in Pembroke. Later he had Isaac 1771, Mary 1774.

Then I find he moved to West Mass., to New Marlboro. That he died in Montgomery Co.

Eleanor his dau. married Origen Brigham at New Marlboro, Mass., he died at Schoharie Ni Y. in 1808 and he in 1812.

Now if our g-grandfather was in Schoharie Co., even in 1801 and Capt. Moses just across the line in another county and our uncle's name was Eleanor's husbands name it convindes me here is our line.

and he was too old to begin research. But I guess he was interested for I got another letter asking me to send him all I could gather.

Meanwhile my birthday came and for a present my daughter had ordered these histories from the author Dr. Ridlon of West Buxton, Maine. He was 10 yrs. gathering it. It is very extensive, since he has gone back to the 10th century.

I found this Origen Brigham and immediately I remeberd hearing of your uncle Origen. It was so unusual a name I wrote Dr. R. I believed that I could connect our branch thro., that point. He encouraged me to continue and to keep in touch with him. He is thinking of publishing a new set including some he has found after the others were published.

When I establish our line I shall try to get each family to send me their names and incidents of importance. Also any positions of importance they may have occupied but I'm interested now to find out about Wm., or Bildad.

They certainly used Bible names in those days. You know very few can go back to the Pilgrim Fathers and to belong to the Mayflower Society is quite an honor.

I found about twenty who have gone in on Geo. Soule. It was in these histories I found Capt. Moses military record and his two sons. After I received your letter I looked in the book and found Bildad was a drummer and was very young, when he enlisted.

If this great grandfather lived at Terra Haute and owned any property there the Co., register of deeds could give information and he surely would sign his name Bildad if that was his name.

This George Soule was the 35th to sign the Mayflower Compact and he is often mentioned in histories back here. There is a gourd that belonged to him in the Memorial Hall at Plymouth. He was a young man, a tutor to Gov. Winslow's children, a close friend of Miles Standish and some of the Soules married the Aldens.

Then I find a "May" my husband's family married a "Soule" and Louisa May Alcott is a member of my husband's family.

Such an intermingling!

I am hoping to hear from you again soon and that you may have unearthed something that may help.

I am so glad to find you are interested. The author wrote me if we belonged to this Capt. Moses' family we could very easily trace our ancestry back through the Middleboro Mass. branch.

I be your pardon for writing such a long epistle but I am quite certain you will like to know something of "who we are." I regret to learn of you mother's death. I understood, Mrs. Green to say she was living or I would not have written as I did.

Again hoping for News,

I am very truly,

Mrs. Kate Steven.

Dear Rula:

Sorry for the delay, but I wanted to wait until I could spend a whole, uninterrupted day on the Soules.

My opinion is that they have tried to latch onto the wrong Soule line --- probably because of the coincidence of the name Origen B. Soule. (This isn't my day to type; I had a bad night.)

I have consulted several books on forenames and nicknames. Nowhere can I find anything other than that Bildad was a Biblical name. There is nothing toindicate that it was an accepted or even an occasional nickname for William. In Massachusetts records I found Bildad as a forename in several different places.

The crux of the matter, I believe, is this. In their outline they give William's birthdate as Sept. 17, 1766. Where did they get that Sept. 17?

Moses Soule's son, Bildad, was baptized on Sept. 28, 1766. Usually, babies were baptized three days after birth. Not always, of course.

The point is I find a William Soule born Sept. 17, 1764. The years are close enough to be reasonable, but the significance of the Sept. 17 in both records is something to ponder about. It depends on where your friends got the Sept. 17 date.

Consequently, I am very much inclined to think that this is the right William. He was the son of Joseph and Elizabeth. Joseph was the son of William. Our library does not have Ridlon's Soule genealogy; so I cannot check to see if this line is brought out.

Even if it is, I can't find service for Joseph in either Massachusetts or New York. That is, in what we have here. That doesn't mean that he didn't have service, and he was certainly of an age to have had it. For that matter, it is just barely possible that William, born 1764, served although I have found very few boys as late as 1765 who served because the war was practically over in 1781.

WILLS

I am inclined to think that Joseph moved to New York rather early and that William was married there. I ran through all the vital records of the Massachusetts towns mentioned and found nothing further on this family.

You could, of course, go through all the town records that the library has and maybe find them. However, if they didn't show up, it wouldn't be conclusive because there are some that the library doesn't have and there are some that have never been published.

Now as to the name Origen. Such an unusual forename in a family would make a person immediate suspect a relationship if he found the name in an older generation. May I remind you, however, of all the babies named Lorenzo Dow Jones or Lorenzo Dow Smith, George Washington Jones, Andrew Jackson Smith, and even Chauncey Rose Jones.

In fact, I worked on a Terre Haute family whose child was named Chancy Rose Van Cleave. They claimed he was named Chancy because when he was born, he was so puny that his father said it was pretty "chancy" if he lived. No amount of argument on my part could convince the client that he was named after Chauncey Rose. Even if I had been able to, then the client would probably have suspected a relationship to Chauncey Rose.

It was quite common to name children after famous people or favorite neighbors, and this can be very confusing in genealogy.

Dr. Origen Brigham was a prominent doctor in the Revolution. Certainly it would be likely for a man to name his son for him --- especially if there was a remote relationship, as I suspect in this case. Certainly this Joseph Soule line was connected with the other Soules, but there would have to be a lot of work done on it. I think I can definitely say that Moses' Bildad and their William are not one and the same man. No wonder D.A.R. questioned it.

I don't like to spend more than a day on a problem that I see no possibility of a quick solution. Is there some other line they could follow?

The charge is $ 17.00, please.

Sincerely,

Margaret Waters

My dear Mrs. Pugh:

Since I am a stranger to you I feel that I should explain who I am and my purpose in taking the liverty of addressin you.

I am the daughter of Mary, daughter of Henry Soules. My name id Mrs. Kate Stevens and my home is Oklahoma. I have a married daughter living here and I often visit her.

I was in Syracuse last fall while here and happened to be in the library therp in the American History department. I noticed two volumes of the Soule family history. This summer while here I made it a point to look up many interesting bits of history here in the Cornell Library and also to again visit the Syracuse library.

I desire to obtain these books if I can connect up the Terra Haute branch to my satisfaction. To do this I must know more about them than I do. This is why I am writing you. Can you give me the following information?-The date of birth and place of birth of my great grandfather and also his father's name Etc.,

Alma Green who is my mother's cousin and yours also told me his name was William. That he lived in Schoharie Co., and also Onondaga Co. Her mother was born in Schoharie Co., in 1801. That William had a sister named Eleanor and also one named Freelove.

Now I've found in this book an Eleanor Soules who married Origen Brigham in Schoharie Co. She was born in 1764 in Pembroke now Marlboro, Mass. Her father was Capt. Moses Soules(they spell the name in several ways)but all are the decendants of Geo. Soule who came in the Mayflower.

Moses had married Eleanor Williams and had Chas Williams born 1762. Eleanor 1764-Bildad 1766, Moses 1769 but Chas. Williams children are given and they are not the children of my great grandfather.

Mrs. Pugh I shall be so very much pleased to get the information for which I've asked or any other that you have of this man or his family.

Should you care to get the direct line, if I am successful in perfection it. I shall be pleased to send it to you.

Hoping to hear from you at once and thanking you I am very truly yours.

Dear Miss Pugh:

I was very much pleased to receive your letter and I hope by co-operation we may eventually establish our identity with the Soule family and the line to Geo. Soule, the Pilgrim.

The name is Soule but in Nova Scotia and New York the "s" in many instances has been added, however they can all be traced back to George Soule except the French line.

Tradition in our family as handed doen to me, at any rate is that our ancestor came in the Mayflower. That our grandfather or rather great grandfather was born in Mass., his father a merchant. That our g-grandfather married either a servant in the family or a country girl named Jemima and therby was disoened. Now it seems to me my mother said her name was Butler. I enquired of Alma Green and in substance she gave me the same story.

Alma said her mother was born in Schoharie Co., in 1801 and showed me a book stating this. She said also that our g-grandfather lived in Onondaga Co., Syracuse is the Co., seat, of this county and one branch of the family is among the leading citizens of that city; not our branch, but they go back to Geo.

Alma gave me the names of her mother's family in this order: Moses, Wm Cornelius, Eleanor, Henry, Chas, Mary and Eliza; all born she said in N.Y.

The first census of 1790 doesn't show that Wm. Soule is the head of a family. The 1810 census might but I've been unable to find the 1810 directory. If you can find it at the library in Terra Haute I wish you would report to me. Alma said they left N.Y. in 1816. So he must have married about 1793.

o old to begin research. But I guess he was interested ther letter asking me to send him all I could gather.

Meanwhile my birthday came and for a present my daughter had ordered these histories from the author Dr. Ridlon of West Buxton, Maine. He was 10 yrs. gathering it. It is very extensive, since he has gone back to the 10th century.

I found this Origen Brigham and immediately I remembered hearing of your uncle Origen. It was so unusual a name I wrote Dr. R. I believed that I could connect our branch thro., that point. He encouraged me to continue and to keep in touch with him. He is thinking of publishing a new set including some he has found after the others were published.

When I establish our line I shall try to get each family to send me their names and incidents of importance. Also any positions of importance they may have occupied but I'm interested now to find out about Wm. or Bildad.

They certainly used Bible names in those days. You know very few can go back to the Pilgrim Fathers and to belong to the Mayflower Society is quite an honor.

I found about twenty who have gon in on Geo. Soule. It was in these histories I found Capt. Moses military record and his two sons. After I received your letter I looked in the book and found Bildad was a drummer and was very Young, when he enlisted.

If this great grandfather lived at Terra Haute and owned any property there the Co., register of deeds could give information and he surely would sign his name Bildad if that was his name.

This George Soule was the 35th to sign the Mayflower Compact and he is often mentioned in histories back here. There is a gourd that belonged to him in the Memorial Hall at Plymouth. He was a young man, a tutor to Gov. Winslow's children, a close friend of Miles Standish and some of the Soules married the Aldens.

Then I find a "M" my husband's family married a "Soule" and Louisa May Alcott is a member of my husband's family.

Such an intermingling!

I am hoping to hear from you again soon and that you may have unearthed something that may help.

I am so glad to find you are interested. The author wrote me if we belonged to this Capt. Moses' family we could very easily trace our ancestry back through the Middleboro Mass. branch.

I beg you pardon for writing such a long epistle but I am quite certain you will like to know something of "who we are." I regret to learn of your mother's death. I understood, Mrs. Green to say she was living or I woul not have written as I did.

Again hoping for new,

I am very truly,

Mrss Kate Steven.

Miss Lucy Pugh,
Terra Haute, Ind.
Dear Miss Pugh:

I wrote you sometime ago regarding the Soules in Terra Haute and that I have had difficulty in establishing the name of our grandfather.

If some one interested in this matter would look over the records in the Co., clerk's or Register of deeds office it might establish it, in Terra Haute.

The record as I glean it from these histories I have is as follows:

Geo Soule came in the Mayflower as tutor for Gov. Winslow's children-born either about 1590 or 1600; the dated not certain married Mary Becket. Died 1679. She died in 1677.

John, son of Geo & Mary Becket Soule born 1623 or 1631(dates uncertain) married Rebecca Simmons, dau. of Moses Simmons. He died in 1707. Born at Plymouth, Mass.

James, son of John & Rebecca Simmons Soule born in Duxbury, Mass. in 1659. Died in Middleboro, Mass. Aug. 27, 1744, married Lydia Thompson of Middleboro who died Mar. 14, 1741.

Isaac, son of James and Lydia Thompson Soule born June 16, 1699. No wife given supposed to be Isaac of Middleton Mass.

Capt. Moses Soule, son Isaac of Middleton baptized at Pembroke Mass. Apr. 2, 1738, married Eleanor Williams at Marshfield, Mass. May 7, 1761.

Bildad, second son of Moses & Eleanor Williams Soule born Sept. 17, 1766. Jemima Butler wife of Wm or Bildad born Jan. 14, 1773 died Oct. 3, 1833.

The record down to Jemima Butler copied from the history of the Soule, Sowl, Soule's family history by Rev. G.T. Ridlon. The last item from Alma Greene's father's old bible.

The military record of the three sons of Capt. Moses Soules and also Moses' record I found in the Mass. Directory of Sailors & Soldiers in the Rev. It is the same as is given in these books. Chas. Williams the oldest son was in the war until 1781. I saw the cemetery where he is buried at Oneonta. N.Y. His children's names are in this book, but when it comes to Bildad it says: "See children forward" but none given. Chas. Willims for a while was a fifer. Bildad's records shows he was in off and on for about a year. He was a drummer. Enlisted in 1778. Only 12 yrs. old. Moses enlisted for 4 days only. He was 9 yrs. old. So you see there was no son Wm. who could have been a drummer boy in the Rev. I drove over to Schoharie and found Origen Brigham's grave. He is buried in the cemetery at the fort. It is well kept and he must have been an important personage in Schoharie as people still know of him. I failed to find Eleanor's grave. She had no children.

These Soule's were Quakers and this story about Moses disowning our grandmother must be a mistake. He probably married Jemima who was not a Quaker and was disowned by the Quaker church since that was a ruling in the church-I glean from reading the history.

These books go back to 9th century. Dr. Ridlon was perfectly astonished it appears to learn of this Terra Haute branch. He is 85 yrs. old but he requested me to collect all I could and send to him as he might publish a new edition. I am trying to complete my own record for these books. If I'm successful in collecting

There are several William Soules of about the same age, and there is a question as to whether the William above was the father of Joseph, born Dartmouth, 1733, who married Charity Tripp, 1763, as given inthe Soule Gen. The compiler gives this Joseph as the son of William's first wife, Jemima Baker, and born 1733, then puts him in the list of the second wife's children. There was another Joseph, born in Dartmouth in 1733, son of William(4) (William 3, George 2, 1) Soule, and they may be well be confused. As there is almost nothing in the records about Sylvanus (3) Soule I feel that the 3rd and 4th generations are doubtful, as well as Joseph (5). The arguments in the genealogy are not convincing.

(As given in the Soule Gen.)-

TRIPP LINE

Charity Tripp is given in the Soule Gen. as "dau of Francis and Desire of Tiverton" but according to the Tripp Gen., she was daughter of Francis and his 1st wife, Waitstill Chase, since she did not die until some time before 1756, when he married for the second time. Since Charity (Tripp) Sowle named a child Isaac, that might have been for Isaac Chase, her grandfather, father of Waitstill.
